

Slovenian competition 2008/2009 – short report

Slovenian competition in school year 2008/09 was titled Spare time. We have received 18 papers prepared by 36 students. The winning paper was about dancing and dance parties as a way of spending spare time in the past. Authors are Mateja Stibilj and Meta Kompara. The second best paper was written by Irena Čavdel. She wrote a paper about youth and their spare time in the frame of national organizations. And the third best paper was prepared by Tamara Čakić. Her paper was titled Spare time of our grandparents – between freedom and restraint. The award ceremony took place in the hall of Museum of contemporary history in Ljubljana on 21 May 2009. The representative of Eustory was Wolf Schmidt.

Bojan Balkovec