

AG E N D A

Digital Kick-Off of the
EUSTORY Annual Network Meeting 2022

29 + 30 March, 1 April 2022

»24 February 2022: A Historic Turning Point for Europe?«

Tuesday, 29 March 2022 »Kick-Off Session«

Opening Welcome by Thomas Paulsen, Member of the Executive Board, Körber-Stiftung
Keynote »War and Memory in the Post-Soviet Space: Weaponization Without Limits?« by Tatiana Zhurzhenko, Researcher from Kharkiv, currently Centre for East European and International Studies (ZOiS), Berlin
ANM 2022: Preview on Programme and Introduction of Participants by Katja Fausser, Managing Director EUSTORY
Input »After the Liquidation: Future Perspectives of Memorial International« by Irina Sherbakova, MEMORIAL Society in Moscow
Round Up of the Day

Wednesday, 30 March 2022 »Strategic Exchange: Our Work in Light of Current Developments«

Welcome and Status Quo of EUSTORY Network in March 2022 Presentation by Katja Fausser incl. input by Andrii Fert, Project Coordinator DVV International Cooperation
Our Work in Light of Current Developments Network exchange in breakouts
Roadmap: How to Continue in 2022? Presentation of discussions and results in plenum and first set-up of a roadmap for 2022

Friday, 1 April 2022 »Network Exchange: Trends, Innovation, Best Practise«

Welcome by Katja Fausser
HistEdu – An Initiative for a New European Digital Programme Input by Zuzana Jezerska, EUSTORY Slovakia, Slovak Centre for Communication and Development
A History Competition for the Diaspora? Presentation on future scenarios for the work outside of Russia
Analysing Students’ Narratives: Challenges and Experiences from Georgia Presentation by Laura Mafizzoli, Social Anthropologist, University of Manchester
How to Proceed Outlook of upcoming EUSTORY Activities in 2022 by EUSTORY International Office

Supported by: